

SIMON SAYS ACTIVITY

Facilitator says the phrases in a language unfamiliar to most participants (Italian in our case). If phrases are not understood, she uses the simplified term (in Italian) and, if necessary, with gestures.

- |   |                                |
|---|--------------------------------|
| 1. Could you please stand up?             | Please stand up                |
| 2. Now raise your left arm                | Raise your left arm            |
| 3. Nod your head at the same time         | Nod your head                  |
| 4. You can put your left arm down now     | Put your left arm down         |
| 5. Now, I want you to turn around 3 times | Turn around 3 times            |
| 6. Go to someone and shake their hand     | Shake someone's hand           |
| 7. Give me a big smile, everyone          | Smile                          |
| 8. Go and stand in a corner of the room   | Walk to the corner of the room |
| 9. And finally, you can sit down          | Sit down                       |
| 10. Phew! That was exhausting             |                                |